For the representation of the Christian God as being sited quite apart in "the supernatural" world signals the construction of a secular space that begins to emerge in early modernity. Such a space permits "nature" to be reconceived as manipulatable material, determinate, homogeneous, and subject to mechanical laws.

Formations of the Secular Quotes by Talal Asad

2-2.5/5. I have seen "Formations of the Secular: Christianity, Islam, and Modernity" referenced to all over and there is certainly much to ruminate on in this recondite read, but I would have preferred a clearer and more accessible explanation (I found Talal Asad's argument quite convoluted and challenging to follow).

"A dark but brilliantly original work, Formations of the Secular is one of the most important books on religion and the modern in recent years." Author: H-Net Reviews "This wonderfully illuminating book should be read alongside the author's Genealogies of Religion . . ."

When we care more about what people think of us than respecting the ways of God, then we are secular. 3. You are led by money not by the Holy Spirit. Whenever you prioritize money over God's will, you are secular. This is why so many so-called believers work so many hours; then they rarely have time to participate in a faith community.
