The Gathering Storm follows many plot threads but focuses on two characters, Rand al'Thor and Egwene al'Vere. While it follows al'Thor's attempts to unite and rally the world's forces for the Last Battle, it also addresses his struggle with his sanity, caused by the corruption of his mind from the use of the male half of the One Power.

The end result is a book we hope you will find stimulating and educational as well as entertaining in parts. Thanks to some specialist partners in PR, accounting and so forth, the total cost of The Gathering Storm has been kept to an absolute minimum, allowing more money to be distributed to charity.

Gathering Storm II - First Look A new god is born as a dying race awakens their chance for rebirth... We've already seen some pretty epic events in the Gathering Storm series in book I, Fall of Cadia. Well, you haven't seen anything yet. Check out this trailer for the second part of the Gathering Storm and see the miniatures that herald the awakening of a new god in the 41st Millennium...

There's not really all that much of it, at least thus far. The three Gathering Storm supplements that kicked off the whole storyline came out earlier this year. The important pieces are Dark Imperium, Cadia Stands, Watchers of the Throne, Devastation of Baal, and (for the Eldar) Ghost Warrior. There might be one or two short stories and novellas floating around, but nothing that really jumps ...

Gathering Storm. Gathering Storm is a campaign series for the Seventh Edition of Warhammer 40,000. It will see the advancement of the 13th Black Crusade on Cadia.

In "The Gathering Storm", Finney brings Churchill to life with a superb representation of the man as an aging member of parliament, husband, father, friend, and man of the manor Chartwell in the decade prior to WWII. With a fine supporting cast and an excellent screenplay, "TGS" is a must see for WWII history buffs and anyone with a particular ...

It is debatable, however, whether that is a function of Sanderson's style or the fact that the plot is coming to a head. This book is a worthy and welcome addition to the Wheel of Time series. Although it is sad that Robert Jordan could not write all of it himself, The Gathering Storm is a fantastic addition to his legacy.
